DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to because in fig. 4A "bu" should be "by" and in fig.5, block 502 "internet" should be "interrupt". Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 7 and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 7 is rejected based on lack of positive antecedent basis of "the code table" on line 3.

Claim 19 is rejected based on lack of positive antecedent basis of "the code table" on line 4.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Suzuki, U.S. Pat. No. 5,101,199.

As per claim 1, Suzuki shows a method for handling an interrupt, the method comprising: receiving an interrupt request corresponding to a particular interrupt (abstract); substituting a vector corresponding to a group of interrupts with a vector corresponding to the particular interrupt (abstract, fig.5, and col.7, line 29 – col.8, line 44); and jumping to a service routine corresponding to the particular interrupt responsive to said substituting (col.8, lines 38-44). Suzuki shows all of the steps recited in claim 1.

As for claim 10, the argument for claim 1 applies. Suzuki also shows executing the service routine responsive to said jumping (col.8, lines 38-44). Suzuki shows all of the steps recited in claim 10.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 2-9 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

7. Claims 11-18 and 20 are allowed.

8. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: with respect to claim 11, the prior art does not show the particular combination of the interrupt source register with the ROM as recited in the claim.

Conclusion

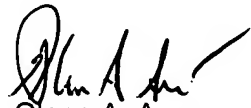

9. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The other cited references show interrupt handling but they do not appear to show the details as claimed.
